Depositors, start your goblets.

The first two goblets are FREE, the complete set is easy.

Take home a gift of authentic lead crystal, from Fairhaven Savings.

Here's how. Just deposit $50 in a new or existing savings account, and two crystal water goblets are yours, free. Or you can choose any other pair in the set.

Imported from France, these goblets and tumblers are made of 24% lead crystal. Hold them to the sunlight and watch them sparkle. Experience the perfect balance of their design. Tap them with your finger, and hear the true ring of crystal.

Of course, you won't want to stop with just two goblets, so we make it easy to complete your collection. Each time you add $25 to your account, you can buy your choice of additional crystal pieces at remarkable savings (you could expect to pay three times as much in fine stores):

Water, wine, cordial and parfait stemware $6.25 a pair

High and low tumblers $5.25 a pair

In just a few months, you can have an elegant glassware collection your family will cherish for years. As a special gift, you can even have a beautiful crystal berry and bowl set by depositing a minimum of $5,000 in a savings certificate of one year or more.

Stop in soon, and start building your collection as you build your savings. (One free gift per family, please. NOW accounts and club accounts not eligible).

CALIFORNIA STORM STAIN

SOLID COLOR STAINS — Linseed Oil or Urethane Latex

- Rich natural tones blend the color and grain of the wood but do not obscure the texture.
- Maximum hiding power in the water repellant finish.
- Cover previously stained surfaces.
- One coat for similar colors or two coats for contrasting colors.
- Deep color penetration — Helps avoid deterioration of wood.
- Mildew resistant and blister resistant on properly prepared surfaces.

SEMI-TRANSPARENT STAINS — Linseed Oil or Urethane Latex

- Natural appearance and texture allows wood to retain its natural beauty without detracting from the bold graining and configurations inherent in wood itself.
- Colors that blend with natural settings and other finishes.
- Penetrating finish helps protect against deterioration of wood.
- Weather gracefully without chipping and peeling.
- Performs better than solid color stains on decks, rails and outdoor furniture.
- Water repellant finish fully protects the natural mellowness of wood from the ravages of changing weather patterns.

BLEACHING STAIN — Transparent Oil Stain

- A natural transparent oil rich stain that quickly produces a uniform silvery gray antique appearance when exposed to natural weathering.
- Designed for use on unfinished wood only and is not recommended for use over painted, stained or sealed surfaces.
- Excellent longevity without blistering or peeling. Retains its natural weathered look throughout the years.

outdid themselves in the Rochester 300 Pageant. The title, it was explained before the production, was taken from an old Indian saying, "One Crow Sorrow, Two Crows Joy, Three Crows A Wedding, Four Crows A Boy!"

The musical play, written by Judith Gurney, and directed by Nancylee Gaucher, was well received by a large audience gathered at the rear of the Rochester Woman's Clubhouse. The stage was very well lighted and wired so that the production could be seen and heard well from all vantage points.

In the application of ink to paper, Dr. Hsia says "you can see clearly from the calligraphy who is scholarly or not", and that like the painter one must be educated in technique "or the work is not considered valuable". When Dr. Hsia writes he uses brushes of various sizes and takes very definite strokes, and says "it is like painting a picture in the concentration it demands."

An important part of Chinese culture, Dr. Hsia says "it is a must in scholarly homes to have wall hangings of calligraphy for the entertainment of visitors." Surrounded by calligraphy collections in his own childhood home, and influenced by his father and great-uncle who were skilled in this respected art, Dr. Hsia is pleased to be able to demonstrate his ability at the Arts Festival, and to answer questions from interested spectators.

It is this kind of talent shared that the Sidewalk Arts Festival hopes to promote. An opportunity to exhibit and enjoy artistic endeavors in a variety of media, there will

The most in cushioning, but still only 290 grams (just over 10 ounces) - that's lighter than any 5-star rated shoe. Travel light!

"Virginia Woolf"

VIRGINIA WOOLF SUPERLATIVE AT GATEWAY

A Review by Edith Byrnes

Wareham: Time and again The Gateway Players prove to be a fine rep company. Last month it was "The Belle of Amherst" which as an entire production was hard to top. The current revival of Edward Albee's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" goes to the very top! Brilliant ensemble acting along with the Pulitzer winning play make for a truly memorable evening of theater.

Karen Chase who stepped into the role of Martha with only a week's notice acts as if the part were written for her. She catches not only the tough bitchery, but also the subtle inner psychological workings of this hard lady's soul. Ms. Chase, ever so brilliant in "Suddenly Last Summer", is superb. As her put-upon spouse George, Paul Hebert gives a brilliant account of himself. His wit, humor, pathos and intellect is everywhere apparent in this "Virginia Woolf".

David Perry is powerful as the opportunist Nick, the young prof going up the ladder of success. Mr. Perry is one of the area's most sensitive young actors, and Albee's vehicle provides him with a memorable role. Marcelle Gauvin, unrecognizable from Emily Dickenson, is perfect as the hysterical Honey. Ms. Gauvin captures both the comic and poignant.

The direction is incredibly swift moving. The show ignites and never burns out. George W. Hayden again shows his rapid fire skills. Set by Pauline Hathaway is lavish and georgian. Costumes by Ruth are smartly in their times. The entire "Virginia Woolf" is among Gateway's most memorable. The production repeats weekends, 8 P.M., throughout July and the first week of August. Don't miss it if you want to see the real "Virginia Woolf". It would make Mr. Albee proud again. Reservations: 295-6768.

"By Gershwin"

REPEAT PERFORMANCE

In response to popular demand, the Southeastern Massachusetts University Theatre Company and Repertory Company will present a repeat performance of By Gershwin in cabaret musical style on August 3, 4, and 5 at 8 P.M. in the SMU Campus Center.

The SMU Theatre Company and the SMU Repertory Company have put together an evening of Gershwin show music ranging from his earliest success, "Swanee" which was introduced by Al Jolson, to the last tunes he wrote in Hollywood for the "Goldwyn Follies" just before his early death. By Gershwin includes sections from the Pulitzer Prize musical Of Thee I Sing, and the opera, Porgy and Bess, as well as such memorable shows of the 20's as Girl Crazy, Oh, Kay, and Lady Be Good.

Principal singers are Bill Begley, Carole Kenny, Norm Byron, Kathy Whalley, Jose Andrews, and Jane Wilcox. The ensemble includes Holly Begley, Paulette Cabral, Christopher Gaucher, Ed Nichols, Bob Pedder, Jr., and Beth Rouleau.

For tickets and reservations call 999-8167 or 999-8697.

A well done goes to 7 year old Heather McGowan, Kerri Gartland and Seraphina Nicolosi who finished second, fourth and fifth respectively in the softball throw. Michelle Chandanais had a sixth place finish in the long jump with a jump of 12 feet 2 inches in the 10-11 age group. Grace Ann Reynolds and Alyssa Sylvia both won heats in the 100 meter dash before being eliminated in the quarter finals. As the Council's Development Director, I will have the opportunity to raise money to enable the Council to support the great potential we have for girls, who are our women of tomorrow."

ANNUAL BLESSING OF THE FLEET

The 10th Annual Blessing of the Fleet will be held on Sunday, August 19th, at the State Pier in the center of New Bedford's historic waterfront. The Blessing is the cornerstone of SeaFair '79, a two-day festival to celebrate the city's seafaring heritage.

This year's Blessing, featuring Congressman Gerry Studds, will continue its ten-year tradition of being the only ecumenical 'Blessing of the Fleet' on the east coast. The New Bedford fishing fleet, decorated with flags, banners and flowers, will parade past the reviewing stand beginning at 1:30 P.M. From the deck of a Coast Guard cutter, the boats will be blessed by representatives of the three major faiths, and prizes will be awarded to the best decorated boat.

The Blessing of the Fleet will be just one of a myriad of activities which include demonstrations of seafood cleaning, cooking and eating; oceanography displays; tours of large ships highlighted by open house on board the British destroyer, H.M.S. Gallatea; plus continuous free entertainment. All this and more will make up SeaFair 1979 August 18th and 19th from 10:00 A.M. until sunset on Piers 3 and 4.
